

COUNTRY WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF NSW

THE PHYLLIS KINDON HUMANITARIAN AWARD NOMINATION FORM

The Phyllis Kindon Humanitarian Award was founded in 1982 to commemorate the Association's Diamond Jubilee Year and the International Year of the Disabled.

Tenable by a member who cares continuously for a disabled child or adult, or an aged person, without any opportunity for a 'break' or holiday. The Award would be useful, for example, to pay for someone to care for the disabled or aged person whilst the member takes a holiday, or the member could purchase equipment to make her task easier in caring for that person. There are many ways in which this Award can be used, entirely at the discretion of the recipient.
