Oak Tree care like family

With passionate and understanding Village Managers on board, retirement village living can be the smartest choice for all the family.

Leading provider of retirement villages The Oak Tree Group says the business extends beyond just caring for residents to supporting extended families who have continued interest in mum/dad's welfare.

"My goal as Village Manager is twofold; to help establish a community where my residents can feel secure and supported in retirement and, in turn, to give families peace of mind that mum and dad's needs are being well looked after," said Oak Tree Goonellabah Village Manager Catherine Bashforth.

"One of the greatest benefits that I can provide is a level of confidence and assurance to both my residents, and their families, that I am efficiently running the village, and am regularly on-site to make sure everything and everyone is OK.

Residents feel at ease knowing they are living in a community of like-minded friends and neighbours who offer genuine neighbourhood support.

"Residents have their own space but they are never alone and there is always someone nearby to help, share or talk with, not to mention a variety of social activities."

Oak Tree's relaxed and independent lifestyle, where all maintenance and repairs are managed by Village Management, helps free up time when family comes to visit. Even the light globes are replaced by Oak Tree.

"Instead of running around doing odd jobs and chores like mowing the lawns, I'm thrilled to see families relaxing and enjoying quality time together in the village or getting out and about making good use of the time," said Catherine.

With over a decade's experience in the industry Oak Tree understands a happy retirement community is about more than just bricks and mortar, it's about making the retirement years count, creating memories, supporting one another and enjoying life.

"Oak Tree Retirement Villages have high expectations of me as a Village Manager, but they will never exceed my expectations of myself," says Catherine.

"Every step of the way from the first visit to the village, to moving and settling in, right through to the very last day or when it's time to say goodbye, we are devoted to supporting our residents, and their families, to enjoy an easier way of life.

"I personally feel privileged to get to know my residents and be part of their lives." said Catherine.
